

INDEPENDENT MILLS BLOCK THE STRIKE

Sign Union Scale with Iron and Steel Workers.

STRIKE IN TRUST PLANTS

"Open Shop" Orders by American Sheet and Tin Plate Company Will Cause Big Walk-out in Fourteen Mills—Fully 20,000 Men Affected. Crises Reached at Midnight.

Pittsburg, June 30.—At midnight all the Union sheet and tin plate plants of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company ceased work on an order issued by President P. J. McArdle, of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Plate Workers.

About 5,000 members of the union will obey the order and fully 20,000 men will be idle as a result. Tin plate workers are among the highest paid in the steel works.

The American Sheet and Tin Plate Company has issued an order to the effect that on and after July 1 the mills of the company would be operated as open shops and wages were reduced 3 per cent. The fight against the order resulted, and plants located at Newcastles and Sharon, Pa.; Youngstown, Bridgeport, Martins Ferry, and Cambridge, Ohio; Wheeling, W. Va., and Elwood, Ind., will be closed.

It is the aim of the Amalgamated to interest the nonunion mill workers in the strike, and plans are afoot to carry forward this programme.

Independents Sign Scale.

To offset the effects of the strike, the independent manufacturers of sheet and tin plate to-day signed the Amalgamated scale on the terms in vogue during the year, and these will all be in operation at higher wages than are offered by the steel corporation. The latter concern announced to-day that the Deming plant at McKeesport, which has been idle eighteen months, and the Monongahela plant, South Side, Pittsburgh, idle two years, will be started to-morrow. Both are nonunion plants, and employ about 1,200 persons.

John Williams, secretary of the Amalgamated Association, to-day said that fifty mills are located, but six men voted to strike. At Elwood, Ind., the men refused to ballot.

It was at Newcastle that the company hoped to break the strike, as the merchants and citizens held a mass meeting and passed a resolution opposing a strike. The merchants voted not to give any of the strikers credit, because they have been idle more than a year and are in debt to the storekeepers.

Refuse to Go to Work.

At Bridgeport, Ohio, the workers did not wait for the strike order, as most of the men at the Etna-Standard and Laughlin plants refused to go to work this morning and only ten of the forty-six mills were operated to-day.

The Hotel Henry was the scene of a conference to-day between representatives of the independent manufacturers and union officials, and it was announced that the independent manufacturers will continue to operate under a union scale, despite the action of the combine.

After being in session from 9 o'clock this morning, the conference between the officials of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel, and Tin Workers and the independent manufacturers, at the Hotel Henry, resulted in an understanding at 11 o'clock, and the announcement was made that the present union scale will be continued for the next twelve months.

MISS TALTY WEDS IN NEWARK

Washington Girl Bride of Former Representative James McGavin.

Wedding Is Hastily Arranged and Ceremony Performed at Restau- rant by Marrying Justice.

While her father and mother thought she was still visiting her sister at Fort Wood, Bedloe Island, Miss Mabel E. Talty, nineteen years old, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Talty, 3448 Brown street northwest, was married Tuesday evening at Dejeanne's Rest, a restaurant at 17 Central avenue, Newark, N. J., to former Representative Charles E. McGavin, of Chicago, now a lawyer in that city.

The marriage was performed by Justice of the Peace Richard F. Hargood, known in Newark as the "marrying justice" and who advertises himself by that name. The witnesses were Charles Measure, of New York, and Miss Flora Cortier. Measure is an intimate friend of the former Representative.

The wedding was hastily arranged. Mr. McGavin explained to a group of reporters that he met Miss Talty in Washington while he was here as a member of the Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth Congresses. He said he came East on a pleasure trip, met Miss Talty at the Imperial Hotel.

Miss Talty had been visiting her sister, the wife of Capt. Carr, U. S. A., who is stationed at Fort Wood. From the Imperial the couple went to Newark, where the services of the marrying justice were obtained by Proprietor Dejeanne. There was a wedding supper after the ceremony.

"Please don't say this is an elopement," pleaded Mr. McGavin to the reporters. He is the member of Congress who distinguished himself by making a speech on the floor of the House, in which he attacked the international marriage in which American money is turned in for a title.

Mr. Talty, father of the young wife, said late last night neither he nor Mrs. Talty had heard anything of the wedding. In response to a question as to whether he suspected anything of the kind was going to happen, he said:

"Well, I kind of had an idea it was going to turn out that way. I couldn't have gone to the wedding, anyhow, as Mrs. Talty is an invalid. But, of course, we should a little bit rather have been told about it. Mrs. Talty and I both think McGavin is a fine chap."

KNIGHTS HAVE OUTING.

Potomac Council Enjoys Day of Fun at Chesapeake Beach.

The annual excursion of the Knights of Columbus, Potomac Council No. 433, was given yesterday at Chesapeake Beach. About 150 members, with their friends, enjoyed the outing, including representatives from Carroll Council, No. 37, and Keane Council, No. 333.

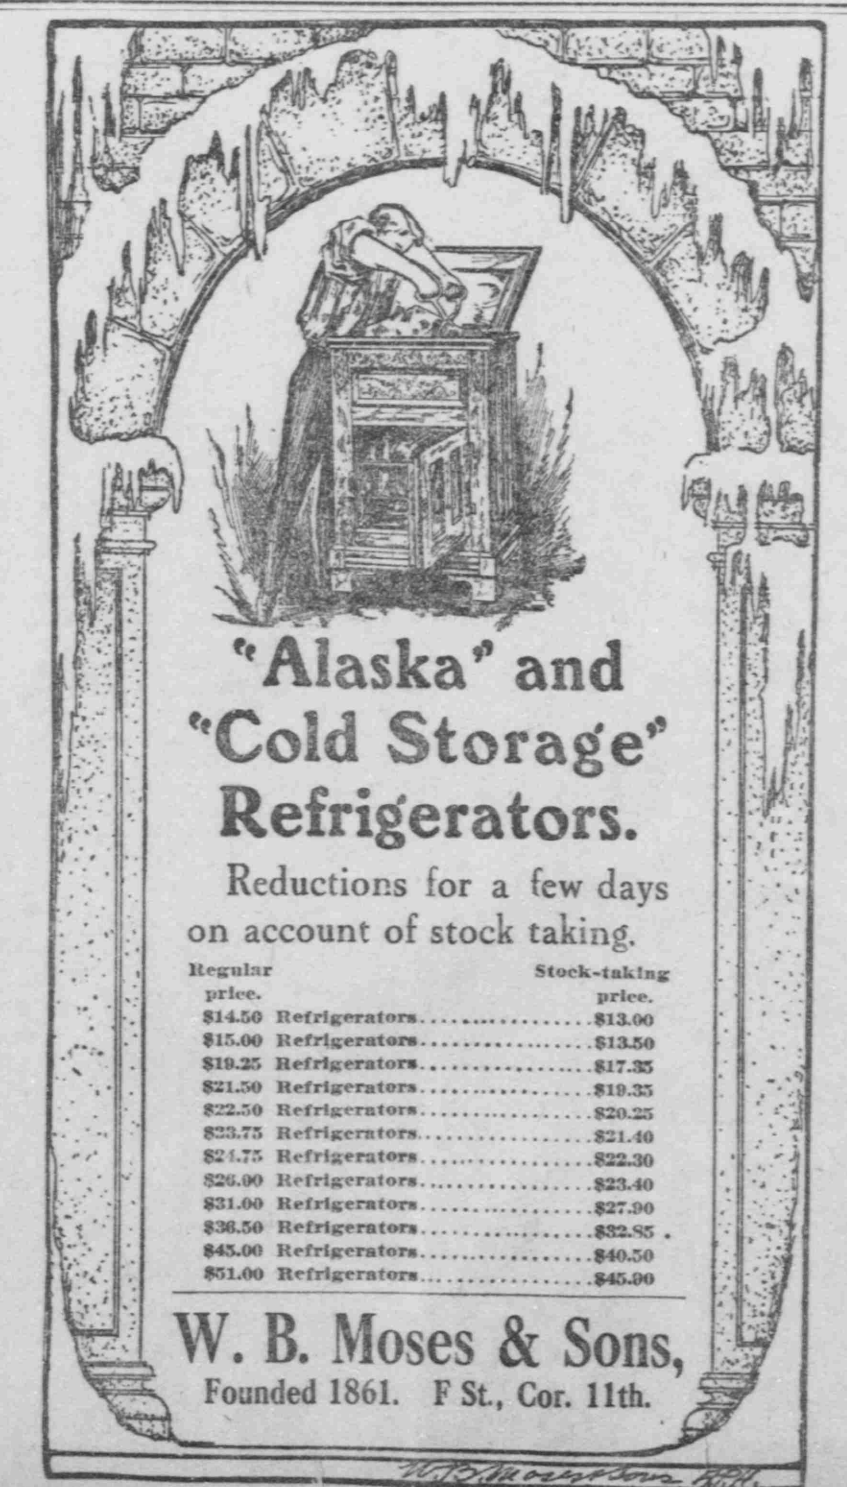

The excursion was given under the personal direction of Harry Maxwell, lecturer of the council, assisted by Daniel Sullivan, John H. Cotter, J. Pelham Dawson, Joseph Fitzpatrick, Richard A. Cortin, Daniel J. Myers, Grand Knight Thomas J. Donovan, and State Deputy Patrick J. Haligan.

The programme was an excellent one. A few of the principal features were races for men and boys and girls, sack races, potato races, shoestring races, and dancing contests.

A baseball game between St. Elmo's parish and Potomac Council resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 8 to 3.

POLICE TRAIL TRUNK

Expressmen Believe Chung Sin Gave the Orders.

CHAUFFEUR OF OTHER BELIEF

Taxicab Driver Fails to Identify Prisoner as His "Fare" on Morning of June 10—Expressman Declares Chung Was Standing Beside Trunk Containing Body and Boasted Job.

New York, June 30.—Chung Sin and his story bubbled up to the surface again to-day. Chung, who has been in the house of detention ever since he was brought down to New York from West Galway, whither he fled soon after Elsie Sigel was murdered, was called upon to-day by two expressmen and a taxicab chauffeur, all of whom had to do with the journeyings of Leung Lim's trunk, and his story of the house of detention early to-day.

Logan went up to where the chubby Chinaman was lying and spoke to him. "Hello," he said. "I've seen you before."

"What," said Chung, rolling over, "you see me?"

"Yes," persisted the truckman. "I've seen you. I saw you standing beside the trunk that afternoon on Eighth avenue when we came to take it away. You boasted the job."

Chung Sin didn't like that. He sneaked in a Chinese tantrum. He didn't have anything to do with the moving of the trunk. But his denials by no means shook Logan's conviction that he had seen Chung Sin standing in the mean little bed room on the afternoon of the murder.

Chauffeur Makes Visit.

Luria, the chauffeur of the New York Taxicab Company, the man who drove to Newark early in the morning of June 10, picking up his fare at 270 West 13th street and leaving him and his heavy trunk at the chop suey house of Li Sing, was taken to the House of Detention to see whether or not Chung Sin was the man who was inside his taxicab. His visit was in accordance with the police theory that it was Chung Sin and not Leung Lim who made the trip to Newark.

The police still put a good deal of faith in the supposition that it was Leung who sent the telegram from Washington to the Sigels on the night of June 3, and they were trying to make it out that Chung was Luria's passenger. Luria was sure, after he looked at the face of the Chinaman in the House of Detention, that he was not the same yellow man whom he carried to Newark early in the morning of June 10.

Search for Leung Lim.

Honolulu, June 30.—The Pacific Mail liner Manchuria was carefully searched here to-day for any trace of Leung Lim, the alleged murderer of Elsie Sigel, in New York.

The police theory is that the man whom they failed to find is stowed away on the vessel, hence a close watch is being kept to prevent the fugitive from landing.

EXCURSION A SUCCESS.

Capital Traction Employees Spend Day Down River.

A tired but happy crowd landed from the steamer Macalester at the Seventh street wharf last night, composed chiefly of employees of the Capital Traction Company and their friends, who gave their eighth annual excursion to Marshall Hall.

The feature of the programme was the prize walk, which was won by Mr. and Mrs. Rock, who gave a pretty exhibition of dancing which the crowd enjoyed.

An affair that ran the prize walk class second in the bid for popularity was the three-legged race won by Messrs. Tucker and Carrington, while the 100-yard dash, of particular interest to those who were inclined to athletics, was captured by W. Taylor in the fast time of ten and two-fifths seconds. Outside of the special features provided by the committee, the regular amusement features afforded entertainment for a large number. Every one voted the excursion a complete success.

SETTLEMENT EFFECTED.

Building Trades Body Ends a Labor Controversy.

At a session yesterday of the executive council of the building trades section of the American Federation of Labor, a settlement was reached in the matter of the controversy between the International Association of Steam Fitters and the United Association of Plumbers, Gas, and Steam Fitters.

The substance of the decision is that both organizations be denied the right to organize local unions in any city previously covered by either association.

It was also found that the International Steam Fitters had violated the decision of the council last February, and in view of these violations it was decided that the local councils be instructed to oust the delegates from the offending unions. Failing to do this, the delegates of the local councils will be required to surrender their charters.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty Years Ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
